A Donor Bill of Rights

PHILANTHROPY is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To assure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the not-for-profit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

I.

To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intend to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.

II.

*To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgement
in its stewardship responsibilities*

III.

To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements

IV.

To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.

V.

To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition

VI.

To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law

VII.

*To expect that all relationships with
