		Client Note 1 - Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - EXPLANATION OF MONITORING AND ENFORCEMENT OF COMPLIANCE Conservation Farms and Ranches abides by The Nature Conservancy policy as provided The Nature Conservancy's monitoring and enforcement of its compliance policy is governed by its Conflict of Interest Standard Operating Procedure ("SOP") which is excerpted as follows a conflict of interest exists when an individual who is responsible for acting in the best interests of The Nature Conservancy has another interest or loyalty that could influence or impair, or may appear to influence or impair, the individual's ability to act in the best interests of The Nature Conservancy The term "conflict of interest" includes actual conflicts of interest potential conflicts of interest (situations that could become an actual conflict in the future based upon foreseeable events or the passage of time), and perceived conflicts of interest (situations that others could reasonably perceive to be, or have the appearance of a conflict of interest) Guiding principles All Conservancy staff, Board Members and Trustees are responsible for identifying conflicts of interest, and disclosing them to the appropriate Conservancy manager or attorney Conservancy employees must determine whether the conflict can or should be avoided to protect the best interests of the Conservancy If it is not reasonably possible to avoid a particular conflict of interest or it is not in the Conservancy's best interest to avoid it, all staff, Board members and Trustees are responsible for fashioning appropriate strategies to mitigate and manage the potential adverse consequences of the conflict of interest, and obtaining approval as described in this Standard Operating Procedure before proceeding with the affected activity Identifying Conflicts of Interest Before engaging in any activity on behalf of the Conservancy, Conservancy staff, Board Members and Trustees must identify and disclose any situations that could give rise to a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict The Disclosure Form should be completed as early as possible by parties with whom the Conservancy plans to enter into a transaction The Disclosure Form is not the only way that the Conservancy may become aware of a conflict Thus, even if the Disclosure Form does not reveal a conflict, but you are aware of one, you must proceed in accordance with this SOP Conflicts of interest are not always clear-cut and easy to define They require case by case analysis The Conservancy is concerned with the disclosure and management of conflicts of interests involving "covered persons " However, not all activities or transactions with a covered person generate conflicts of interest Conversely, a particular factual situation may generate a conflict of interest even when no covered person is involved Early consultation with a senior manager or Conservancy attorney can assist in analyzing the conflict of interest and strategies for avoidance or mitigation This SOP sets forth specific guidance for some areas of potential conflicts (see Types of Conflicts below) These are only examples, and it is the responsibility of each individual to be sensitive to any situation that creates or appears to create a conflict of interest Reporting, Review and Approval Process If a conflict is identified, the Conservancy staff member who is responsible for initiating and/or overseeing the proposed activity must report the conflict to his or her supervisor and the appropriate Conservancy attorney Before proceeding with the proposed activity, review and approval to proceed must be obtained as described in this section While a request for approval of a proposed course of action is pending or being considered, the individual involved in the conflict must refrain from participating in the activity and/or withdraw from any discussion of or decision on the matter 1 Conflicts Committee Review The Conflicts Committee reviews and makes determinations about all conflicts of interest involving the Conservancy All conflicts of interests reviewed by the Conflicts Committee involving a Substantial Contributor shall be reported by the General Counsel or the Chief Compliance Officer to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, disclosing the nature of the conflict, parties involved, and the disposition of the conflict by the Conflicts Committee 2 Review by Audit Committee All conflicts of interest involving a member of the Board of Directors, a Director's family members, and a Director's Controlled Entities shall be submitted to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors for review and disposition Referral to the Audit Committee is made by the General Counsel on behalf of the Conflicts Committee along with the recommendation for disposition made by the Conflicts Committee 3 Guiding Principles In evaluating conflict situations in order to determine an appropriate course of action, the Conservancy will be guided by the following criteria and considerations Availability of other alternatives that would avoid the conflict of interest, Compliance with the letter and the spirit of all applicable laws relevant to all parties to the transaction, Compliance with Conservancy Policies and Standard Operating Procedures, Adherence to the Conservancy's values, such as "Integrity Beyond Reproach," Avoidance of private benefit and inurement, Transparency, Conservation benefits likely to be achieved, Consequences to the Conservancy from declining to participate, Financial or other benefits to the Conservancy, Financial or other benefits to the other party, Nature and extent of risk to the Conservancy's reputation, and Ability to mitigate reputational risks 4 Forms Responsibility for Recommended Action Employees are required to complete and submit the Request for Conflicts Committee Approval form when seeking review and approval of a course of action involving an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest The completed form should recommend a course of action that is designed to minimize the conflict's potential adverse consequences The appropriate Conservancy attorney will review this form to ensure a thorough disclosure of the relevant information and analysis of the conflict Other staff who approve the content of these forms and submission for approval are, by approving the forms, indicating that they support and are responsible for the recommended course of action
