 advertising expenditures and making in-kind contributions to a 527 organization, the Congressional Leadership Fund, disclosed on Schedules I and R Part I-A Line 1 - During the tax year, the Network also ran grassroots lobbying communications on issues of importance to the organization such as fiscal responsibility, protecting Medicare, and rejecting key aspects of the new health care law. These communications sometimes expressed views on the records of the officials the Network asked the public to contact, but the Network avoided any reference to voting or elections and did not disseminate the communications in close proximity to an election. The communications were not classified as political campaign intervention if they were in reference to an upcoming legislative action of interest to the organization, or if they were part of a series of communications on the same topic. ☐

Part III-A - In accordance with the instructions, the Network has completed this section based on member dues and voluntary payments from members. However, the Network's general practice is to inform all donors, whether or not they are members, that their contributions are not tax deductible as charitable contributions or as business expenses. ☐

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Part I Line 2 The Network maintains records that substantiate the amounts and recipients of all grants. While the organization does not make enough grants to have elaborate grant eligibility and selection procedures, all grants are made for general support of like-minded organizations or other purposes that the Network's leadership believes will advance the adoption of center-right policies supported by the Network.

Part II Line 4 - The Network paid the portion of a third-party service provider's fee allocable to that service provider's services to a related organization, and that is reported as a grant here. The organization also allowed that organization to share its facilities.

See Schedule R. ☐

Form 990 Part III Line 4 - Program services reported in this section do not include expenses for political campaign intervention or other activities of the Network that do not directly further its purposes. In contrast, such expenses are reported as "program service" expenditures rather than management or fundraising expenditures in Part IX, given the slightly broader definition of program service there

Form 990 Part V Line 2a - The organization contracted with a separate corporation to provide staffing services, and that organization was the employer who handled payroll taxes and provided W-2s to staff members. The number of employees reported here is the number of staff members provided by the third party ☐

Form 990 Part III Line 2 - see Part III, line 4b

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 11a - The Form 990 is reviewed by the President of the organization, with consultation with accounting and legal professionals as appropriate

Thereafter, a penultimate draft is circulated to all of the members of the organization's governing body for review and comment. The organization provides each member of the governing body with a final version of the Form 990, except for confidential portions (which are available for members of the governing body to review on premises). ☐

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 12c - The organization asks board members, officers, employees, and volunteers annually to disclose interests that may give rise to potential conflicts of interest under the Conflicts of Interest Policy. It does so in conjunction with asking for information about arrangements that may need to be disclosed on the Form 990. ☐

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15 - The board (or a committee thereof) reviews compensation charity under the generally accepted legal definition of that term. The organization therefore does not register under state laws pertaining to charitable solicitation or similar laws except where it determines that state law is meant to apply to other organizations besides common law charities. Information provided is as of the end of the taxable year of the return.

Subsequent activities may result in additional filing requirements.

Form 990 Part VI Section C Line 19 - The certificate of incorporation and conflict of interest policy are provided upon request. ☐

Form 990 Part VII Section A - As noted previously, the organization's staff are employed by a third party employee leasing company rather than being employed directly by the organization.

However, per the instructions, as the common law employer of these employees, the organization has reported their compensation in Part VII as if it employs them directly. Amounts reported in columns (D) and (F) represent the organization's third party staffing company's estimates of the amount of its charge to the American Action Network allocable to employee compensation and employee benefits, respectively. That charge may not correspond to amounts actually paid to the individuals by the employment company. ☐

Form 990 Part VII Section A - Brian Walsh also performed 13 hours per week of services for a related organization, the Congressional Leadership Fund.

Form 990 Part IX - The organization occasionally incurred costs shared with other organizations (primarily the American Action Forum), with the other organizations reimbursing it for their allocable share of the costs. In such circumstances the organization has reported only its net amount paid as expenses on Part IX. Such reimbursements totaled less than

Form 990 Part IV Line 28a-c - The organization had no transactions above the applicable thresholds of Schedule L. ☐

Form 990 Part VIII Line 8b - The organization did not have any fundraising events in the tax year. However, $525,000 in costs were incurred in support of future fundraising events. These amounts are reported as fundraising expenses in Part IX.

Part VII Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R (see instructions).

Part V Line 2 - The organization shared some staff with the Congressional Leadership Fund, a related organization. All such staff were employed by a third party employee leasing company, and time spent working for each organization was tracked. The American Action Network paid the portion of the third party's services fee attributable to the Congressional Leadership Fund, $48,091. In addition, the shared employees used space and equipment of the Network. The Network estimated that overhead attributable to shared staff working for the Congressional Leadership Fund was $11,061.
