children during the summer. They have approximately 20 campers per week at the home where they have full daily schedules which includes a six person survey that was donated by the local bicycle shop. Donations are used to cover the cost of $1500.00 per week per camper. There are no costs to the campers. We also believe that everyone deserves a healthy life. We donate to Volunteers in Medicine a free medical clinic located in Cape May County that also provides medication. While they treat the ill, they also have repeat patients who need their medication monitored. They have an eye specialist who provides free eye care. We also donate to the Coalition Against Rape and Abuse, Make a Wish, Toys for Tots, two local food banks and the American Legion.
