Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Funds are distributed to the utility service providers in the individual cities and credited to the accounts of qualified individuals to cover their payments. No funds are paid directly to an individual. Eligibility for benefits is determined by social service departments of individual localities or by organizations such as the Salvation Army. Eligibility is determined based on adopted criteria. Recipients are only eligible for assistance once in a twelve month period and the maximum amount for any recipient is $250.
