Schedule A part II and Part III

Facts and Circumstances Test:

The Organization applied for exemption and received exemption determination under IRC 170 (b)(1)(A)(vi) however, its support and revenue is primarily in the form of program service revenue that is directly connected to its exempt purpose. While the organization is required to complete Schedule A Part II to determine if it meets the public support test. Part II is not appropriate in light of the fact that all support is in the form of program service revenue. Accordingly the organization has also completed part III as if it were exempt under IRC 509(a)(2). The program service revenue is reported on line 2 and, as noted in Section C, the public support percentage is 100% The tax payer believes that they meet the public support test and satisfy the facts and circumstances test
