Additionally, on an annual basis, every board member is required to read and sign acknowledgement of the Organization's Conflict of Interest Policy. Each member's signed agreement is this filed in the Organization's records.
F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	CEO PERFORMANCE REVIEWS: Once a year, the Executive Committee meets with the Executive Director for his/her annual performance review and evaluation. In preparation for this review, the Executive Committee conducts evaluative research into comparative and equitable compensation of the Executive Director (including aligning with internal historical compensation trends) based upon others in a similar position and in relation to organization size and geographical location--while ensuring the organizational standard of equitable pay to not be in the highest percentile of comparable position pay. At such time, the Executive Committee reviews performance, offers suggestions on improvements, and negotiates salary adjustments based upon prepared research. Complete records are kept on the performance evaluation and the discussions at the review. There are no conflicts of interests among the Executive Committee and the Executive Director. The last time a performance evaluation was conducted for the Executive Director was June 2010. KEY EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEWS: Similar is done with key employees, where Quarterly Performance Reviews are conducted between the employee and the Executive Director, and an Annual Performance Evaluation, including compensation review, of each key employee is initially reviewed and discussed between the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee, and then conducted between the employee and the Executive Director. Compensation is determined based upon a number of factors, including but not limited to performance, value to the organization, and research of non-profit compensation surveys with regards to comparable position, job duties, organizational size, and geographical location. The last Annual Evaluation, including compensation review, of key employees was conducted July 2010. The last Quarterly Review of key employees was conducted February 2011. OTHER EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEWS: Similarly, for non-key and non-executive employees, Performance Evaluations are conducted by the employee's immediate supervisor on a quarterly basis (including an Annual Performance Evaluation) and reviewed annually by the Personnel Committee. As with executive and key employees, compensation is determined based upon a number of factors, including but not limited to performance, value to the organization, and research of non-profit compensation surveys with regards to comparable position, job duties, organizational size, and geographical location. MISC: For all employees (executive, key, and others), if personnel issues occur throughout the year, the issue is discussed between any and all persons involved, the Executive Director, HR and/or the immediate supervisor, and either or both the Personnel Committee and the Executive Committee. Probationary or terminal decisions are always made with the consensus of the immediate supervisor (if applicable), the Executive Director, and either or both the Personnel Committee and Executive Committee.
