Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds are to fund an award which is always much higher than the amount of funds generated by the investment.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The Association, an Illinois nonprofit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. However, the Association files income tax returns which report income from certain activities not directly related to the Association's tax-exempt purpose, such as advertising income, which are subject to taxation as unrelated business income. The Association did not pay any taxes resulting from unrelated business income during the reporting periods presented herein. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Association may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Association, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the reporting periods presented herein. The Association files Form 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois. The Association is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2009.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	The American Marketing Association (AMA) is the largest marketing association in North America. It is a professional association for individuals and organizations involved in the practice, teaching and study of marketing worldwide. It is also the source that marketers turn to every day for information/resources, education/training and professional networking. AMA members are connected to a network of experienced marketers nearly 30,000 strong and include leading marketing academics, researchers and practitioners from every industry. AMA offers highly acclaimed seminars, workshops and hot topic events focused on the immediate needs of marketers, as well as trends shaping the future. AMA's website, MarketingPower.com, is the everyday connection to marketing data, articles, case studies, best practices and a robust job bank. The AMA also is the source for the field's top magazines and journals, including Marketing News. AMA professional and collegiate chapters and special interest groups keep members in touch with the best people and the best practices.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	According to Article III, Section 1 of the American Marketing Association Constitution concerning Voting Rights, Meetings, and Members Rights: All members other than collegiate members shall be entitled to vote. Each shall have one vote.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b	According to the Bylaws, Article II, Section 3 regarding the voting Schedule, on or before December 1, the Nominating Committee shall transmit to the Board of Directors, via the Chairperson of the Board, the names of the candidates for all offices. The proposed slate will be announced to the membership by the end of the calendar year. On or before March 1, election ballots shall be mailed to all voting members. Sixty days after the distribution of the ballot, election results will be tabulated and reported securely, quickly, confidentially and without bias by a third party. These results will then be forwarded to the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee. The nominees for each position receiving the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected. The votes are tabulated by an external body independent of the American Marketing Association.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The IRS Form 990 was shown to the Executive Committee of the Board for review and approval.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The AMA has each Board Member and key employee sign a conflict of interest statement to disclose any possible conflict of interest. If there is a conflict, the person is asked to recuse themselves from any decision that might present a conflict.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Executive compensation is determined by submitting compensation study documents (from PRM, American Research Company, and Association Forum) to the Office of the Chairman of the Board. After conducting the CEO's performance appraisal for the year, the Office of the Chairman of the Board determines the percentage increase, if any, and forwards the information to the AMA's CFO.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The AMA makes a copy of the governing documents, conflict of interest policy and the financial statements available to anyone who requests them. Copies are on hand that can be copied if someone were to ask.
Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances	Form 990, Part XI, line 5	Net unrealized gains on investments: 62,763
