In accordance with SFAS 116, the Foundation has elected not to report art, historical treasures, and other similar contributions as revenues.

The Foundation has a broad array of art work that is displayed throughout Oakton Community College's District 535 campuses with a total value of $2,051,305

Part III - line 4

The works of art owned by the Foundation advances the goals of Oakton Community College, District 535, by making learning accessible, enhancing the College's programs and services, and promoting community engagement by:

- * enhancing the aesthetic appeal of the campus environment;
- * fostering art appreciation among the general public by making the collection freely available to those who may lack access to comparable collections; and
- * promoting the study of art, art history, and culture for the benefit of students and life-long learners

Part V line 4:

The Foundation's endowments advance Oakton Community College's, District 535, ability to be a leader in higher education by:

- * awarding scholarships so that students have access to higher education; and
- * pursuing critical initiatives, innovative programs, and/or unique learning opportunities that fall outside the College's annual operating budget.

Part XII line 2d: Fundraising expense of $46,991 is reported as an expense on the audited financial statements

Part XIII line 2d: Fundraising expense of $46,991 is reported as an expense on the audited financial statements

Income Tax Status

The Foundation received a determination letter from the IRS in October 1977 stating that the Foundation is exempt from Federal income tax because it is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and thus no provision for Federal income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements
