41-0870692Form 990 - Organization's Mission or Most Significant Activities

The Council's primary exempt purpose is to support workers for the economic, moral and social advancement of their condition and status by:

- coordinating the activities of its affiliates into a compact and practical working central organization;
- promoting the growth and development of all building and construction tradesmen on traditional trade or craft lines;
- developing apprenticeship training; promoting the development of health and safety practices and procedures;
- promoting industrial peace and developing a more harmonious feeling between employers and employees; engaging in research, legal and public relations activities appropriate for the advancement of the interest of affiliated unions.

Approximately 34,400 individual union members, from more than 55 local unions, organized into 10 district councils, are represented by delegates on the Council.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Classes of Members or Stockholders

This Council is a non-profit, union membership organization. Approximately 34,400 individual union workers are represented on this Council by delegates from 59 unions and 10 Regional Councils. The 10 Regional Councils and 59 local unions send their delegates to the Council's annual convention. The delegates vote on Council matters at the convention.
