Part VI Section A #2

A school board member's wife works part-time for a business owned by another school board member's husband. The chairman's wife is the preschool teacher for the school. Another board member sells produce to the school's lunch program - The Daily Bread.

Part VI Section #8b -

The school board has given each school board member the responsibility of an area of service (fund raising, building, spiritual development, etc.). They are given authority to spend funds within their area of responsibility within the school board approved budget. Actions and decisions for these areas are documented for the purposes of planning and organization. A central file of documentation of each committee's meetings and/or actions is not maintained by the MACS school office. Individual board members maintain their own information documentation for their area of responsibility.

Part VI Section B #11

The Form 990 is given to the school board members for their review and approval. The form is not submitted to the IRS until after the school board has made a motion to accept the financial statements and tax documentation and approve the Form 990.

Part VI Section B #12

Each year the school board members are asked to disclose any potential conflicts of interest. Additionally, if there is a conflict for a board member regarding a specific issue, they abstain from voting. For example, the wife of our current school board chairman is a part-time teacher for MACS. When issues arise in relation to her (i.e., pay rates), he does not vote or take part in that discussion. Monitoring and compliance is handled appropriately for each occurrence within the school board meetings.

Part VI Section B #13 We maintain a communication policy which helps to prevent an issue from growing to require a whistleblower policy.

This policy states "Open communication at MACS is vital as we seek to accomplish our mission and goals. . . policy has been established with the principles of Matthew 18 in mind. . . first speak with (the person involved in a conflict). If you do not obtain results, then speak with the supervisor. If you still do not obtain results, speak to the board (via the chairman)."

Part VI Section B #14

There is not a written policy regarding retention and destruction of documentation. Financial records are maintained for 10 years and then destroyed by shredding. Student records are held indefinitely. To date, all student records from the beginning of the school (1987) are maintained in the MACS school office.

Part VI Section B 15

No compensation is given to the school board chairman or any other school board members for their service on the board.
