COMPENSATION REVIEW POLICY	PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15B	The Governance Committee of New Brunswick Tomorrow is responsible for facilitating the organization's compensation review process. Its members are comprised of Directors and are appointed by the Chair. The Board of Directors has adopted the practice of assessing compensation for every staff position to assure consistency and competitiveness with the market. Typically, a market review occurs every three years with the Board of Directors securing the services of an independent salary and benefits compensation firm. Typically, the firm's responsibility is to collect data from multiple reliable sources and match them as best as possible to the organization's job descriptions in order to establish salary ranges for each position and to recommend the types of benefits that are customarily offered to staff. This information is provided in the form of a report to the Governance Committee. The organization's compensation philosophy is supported by the independent salary and benefits compensation firm's report. To date, the Governance Committee's philosophy has been to manage base salary compensation toward the midpoint to assure that the minimum salary compensation for each position meets the midpoint of the salary range. If the salary level does not meet the midpoint, the Governance Committee makes incremental and reasonable adjustments as long as the organization's financial position and the staff performance warrants. The Governance Committee also considers merit increases on an annual basis utilizing established performance benchmarks. In terms of executive compensation, the organization offers the President an employment contract that describes all the terms and benefits. The organization's Chair is responsible for setting the performance benchmarks for the President and performing an annual review that includes 360° input. The Chair reports the results of the annual review to the Governance Committee and to the Board of Directors. Any salary and benefit adjustment or merit increase is considered at this time. In terms of staff compensation, the President is responsible for managing the Governance Committee's established process for reviewing and assessing staff performance. The President presents mid-year and final year staff performance evaluations to the Governance Committee. The review is based upon performance factors and employee performance objectives. The review also includes written feedback from the employer and supervisor and an employee development plan to support performance. The Chair of the Governance Committee finalizes the review by signing all of the documents. Any salary and benefit adjustment or merit increase is considered at this time.
