Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	Endowment funds are held to provide investment earnings to be used for scholarships and other needs of the college and to match future endowment gifts
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The Foundation qualifies as a tax-exempt Foundation, other than a private foundation, under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore, has no provision for federal income taxes. The Foundation is one that is described as a public charity by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation files required income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various states. With few exceptions, the Foundation is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2008. The Foundation has concluded no material uncertain tax positions have been taken on any open tax returns. For the current year the Foundation believes all tax positions are fully supportable by existing Federal law and related interpretations and there are no uncertain tax positions to consider.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The 990 was prepared with input from the Foundation's Director of Foundation Accounting, and was reviewed by the same. The 990 was distributed to the Foundation's Finance Committee for their review. Upon their recommendation, it was forwarded to the full Board for their approval.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Men and women of substance inevitably are involved in the affairs of other institutions and organizations. An effective board and administration cannot consist of individuals entirely free from at least perceived conflicts of interest. Although most such potential conflicts that arise will be deemed to be inconsequential, it is everyone's responsibility to ensure that the board is aware of situations that involve personal, familial, or business relations that could be troublesome for the Foundation. Thus, the Foundation requires each Director and Officer upon election or appointment and annually thereafter: (1) To review this policy, (2) To disclose in writing any possible personal, familial or business relationships that reasonably could give rise to a conflict or the appearance of a conflict involving the Foundation, and (3) To acknowledge by his or her signature that he or she is in compliance with the letter and spirit of this policy. In addition, if a matter arises during the course of the year that would have required disclosure, the Director or Officer will be required to promptly disclose such matter in writing.
