Facts and Circumstances

The Essex County College Foundation raises funds to support students needing scholarships or educational projects that cannot be funded through public monies. During the 2011-2012 year, there were fewer fundraising activities because there was no in-kind staff from Essex County College in the 2011-2012 year. As such, fundraising figures are lower and resulted in less than 33 1/3% public support.

The organization solicits funds from the general public and generally maintains a continuous program of solicitation. The Foundation has a governing body of a Board of Directors that represents the broad interest of the public. Monies raised benefit Essex County College's programs and students, through the provision of scholarships.
