| SchJ_P01_S00_L03 | Schedule J, Part I, Line 3 | A compensation committee annually reviews the compensation level of executive staff. In addition, an independent firm is retained to evaluate the appropriateness of the compensation level. Minutes of the compensation committee meetings are recorded.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| SchJ_P01_S00_L04 | Schedule J, Part I, Line 4 | The following officers, key employees, or highly compensated employees participated in a supplemental executive retirement plan (SERP): William J. McCarthy Jr., Mark Schulz, Mark Greenberg, Scott Becker, Angelo Boer, and James Tucker. Mark Schulz, Mark Greenberg, Angelo Boer, and James Tucker received taxable cash payments in lieu of SERP contributions in the amount of $14,534, $13,958, $11,526, and $10,840, respectively. Scott Becker and William J. McCarthy Jr. had contributions made to their SERP account in the amount of $13,576 and $23,563, respectively. Scott Becker's and William J. McCarthy Jr.'s contribution is currently unvested (and may never become vested) and has not been distributed (and may never be distributed). All dollar amounts described above also are set forth on Schedule J, Part II to the extent required by the Form 990 instructions. The interests under the SERP are subject to forfeiture if the participant voluntarily terminates employment prior to his or her applicable vesting date under the agreement. In addition, under current law, interests under the SERP are reportable taxable compensation when they become vested, even if those amounts are not yet payable to the participant (and even if those amounts are never paid to the participant). No rollover or other tax-deferral options are available to participants. Participants' interests under the SERP are not guaranteed or secured in any way and at all times are subject to claims of the employer's bankruptcy creditors. In the manner required by IRS rules, the design of the SERP was approved as reasonable, in advance, by an independent compensation committee, which based its decision on data provided by an independent compensation consultant. |

| F990_P06_S0B_L11b | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b | The organization's Form 990 was reviewed by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors and a copy was provided to all board members before it was filed. The by-laws of the organization delegate broad authority to the Executive Committee.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| F990_P06_S0B_L12c | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | Upon election, each director signs a conflict of interest statement requiring disclosure of conflicts of interest and signs a conflict of interest statement annually thereafter during their term. The organization's management continuously reviews and monitors to identify any area of conflict. Employees are provided an explanation of the conflict of interest policy during orientation and acknowledge in writing receipt of the policy at that time. In addition, certain employees sign a representation letter in conjunction with the organization's audit, which acknowledges compliance with the code of ethics, which includes the organization's conflict of interest policy. |
| F990_P06_S0B_L15  | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15  | A compensation committee annually reviews the compensation level of the executive staff. Additionally, an independent firm is retained to evaluate the appropriateness of the compensation level. Minutes of the compensation committee meeting are recorded.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
