PROCEDURES FOR MONITORING USE OF GRANT FUNDS	SCHEDULE I, PART I, LINE 2	The University offers merit and talent scholarships on a competitive basis to all students. These awards do affect consideration for need based financial aid. If eligible for financial aid, these awards will be counted as resources and will become part of the financial aid package. The University also offers endowed scholarships to all students who meet the criteria of each scholarship. Students who file the financial aid from will automatically be considered when financial need is required. Grants are available annually from current funds to full-time students with documented financial need. Financial aid consists of scholarships, grants, loans, and paid employment. Scholarships and grants do not have to be repaid. Loans are offered at low interest rates on the condition that they be repaid. Paid employment is an earning program. The amount offered is the amount that she may earn. The student is paid an hourly rate for work actually performed.
