|    | CfY trains volunteers in youth intervention, skill building, and mentoring youth at-risk on a one-on-one basis. Mentors are matched with students from three of Seattle's most vulnerable high schools: Cleveland, Rainier Beach, and Chief Sealth. Both students and mentors are involved in the selection of their match. Mentors and students meet on a weekly basis throughout the school year. The "Launch" weekend in Oct. is an overnight camping event that introduces students to mentors. A similar "Boost" weekend is put on in Feb. when re-focusing is often helpful, and large workshops and group activities are conducted throughout the school year. Our program teaches and instills core concepts focused on personal growth and accountability. Our values are community, self-awareness, integrity, empowerment, sense of purpose, optimism, and grace. CfY aims to build a community of support for both our students and their mentors. As of this filing (Dec 2012), CfY is supporting over 100 volunteers and over 60 students, and our students have a graduation rate of 97%. |                |         |                        |   |               |   |

| F990_P01_S00_L06  | Form 990, Part I, Line 6               | Community for Youth relies heavily on volunteers to ensure the success of its organization. All of Community for Youth's mentors are volunteers. These mentors meet with students on a weekly basis to build a relationship and help the students achieve their goals. Additionally, a number of volunteers assist the organization in events during the year, such as the annual auction, boost, and various workshops. All of the board members are volunteers as well. |
| F990_P06_S0B_L11b | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b | A copy of Form 990 is prepared by the board Treasurer (a CPA), and is reviewed in detail by both a non-profit tax professional and our executive director. Prior to filing, a copy is distributed to the entire board for review.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| F990_P06_S0B_L12c | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | When a board member joins the board of the organization, he/she is required to sign a conflict of interest policy. Conflicts are reviewed by the board President and any potential conflicts are made known to the board. When a board member has a potential conflict of interest, he/she is recused from voting on the decision.                                                                                                                                        |
| F990_P06_S0B_L15  | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15  | In September 2011, Peter Retztagg, our executive director, was hired. To determine compensation, the board reviewed comparable positions in the industry and voted on his proposed salary.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| F990_P06_S0C_L19  | Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19  | The governing documents, financial statements and conflict of interest policy are available upon request.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
