families.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6: There are three (3) classes of membership in the State PBA: Active, Supervisor and Retired.

Active members are defined as any person regularly appointed as full-time sworn law enforcement officers and in accordance with Local Association requirements is eligible for membership. Any person who is not a member of a municipal police department, but who is a bona fide law enforcement officer, who resides in any municipality wherein a Local Association exists, will be entitled to membership in said Local Association, providing however that he is not already a member of another

Local Association, or his employer does not have a PBA Local Association and that he conforms to all other requirements set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws of this Association. A law enforcement officer must join the Local Association of his department. A law enforcement officer who is otherwise eligible for membership in this Association will not be ineligible because he/she resides outside of the State of New Jersey;

Supervisor Officers are defined as full-time sworn law enforcement officers who are members of a Local Association and are permanently promoted to the rank of Sergeant or above, or the equivalent rank in a non-police department pursuant to New Jersey Statute; Retired members are defined as any member of a Local Association who
