	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared after the audit is completed and the Form 990 is distributed to the Senior Staff and to all of the members of the Audit Committee for review. The Form 990 and the results of the Audit are reviewed by the Audit Committee and are presented to the Board during the monthly Board Meeting. Revisions are communicated to the CFO before the Form 990 is filed.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Presently, COG does not require that the officers, board members and key employees disclose their conflicts of interest and those of their family members on an annual basis. The process of disclosure is performed when the individual initially joins COG or its Board through the distribution and review of the Organization's policies and procedures. These guidelines require the individual to report matters of conflict before or as they occur. All employees are covered under the policy, and all levels of employees are considered under the policies. Conflicts at all levels of staff are reviewed by Human Resources. COG's conflict of interest includes outside employment which conflicts with COG, participation in political activities, receipt of gifts or gratuities, and special restrictions for employees who work with elected officials.
		Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15a and 15b. COG operates like a government entity where the compensation of its employees is determined by a market study in combination with our member jurisdictions' compensation structure to determine COG's pay rates, compensation, and benefits. The Executive Director's compensation salary is determined by a board assigned committee annually based on organization's performance.
