uncertain income tax position must be more likely than not (greater than 50% likelihood of realization) before it is recognized in the determined as a result of a review by tax authorities having all relevant information. During the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011,

Part III, lines 4 a, b, c and d, Exempt purpose achievements:

The League of Women Voters Education Fund has been fighting for equal access to the polls since 1920. League volunteers have helped thousands register or update their registration each election year, focusing on reaching groups that are underrepresented in the electorate. To directly combat these attempts to disenfranchise specific groups of Americans, the Education Fund moved our voter registration efforts into high gear last year. We helped state and local Leagues carry out voter registration drives to register tens of thousands of new voters for the 2012 elections. We also urged state governments to fulfill their obligation to comply with federal laws — such as the National Voter Registration Act — that allow Americans to register to vote when they apply for social services.

While the political participation of young Americans has traditionally lagged behind other age groups, the League of Women Voters Education Fund is ensuring a strong future for our democracy by expanding our efforts to register voting-age high school students. Last year, based on research from our ground-breaking 2010 High School Voter Registration Project to encourage voter registration by minority and low-income students, the Education Fund developed "Empowering the Voters of Tomorrow." This comprehensive training manual is being used by local and state Leagues, other civic organizations, student groups, and educators interested in conducting effective high school voter registration drives.

In 2011, the Education Fund also extended Smackdown Your Vote!, our successful partnership with World Wrestling Entertainment that encourages youth voter registration and participation. In July 2011, we announced the winners of the first-ever Smackdown Your Vote! Democracy Award, which recognizes state and local Leagues for their outstanding work to engage and empower young voters.

Through VOTE411.org — the Education Fund's ground-breaking one-stop election website—we continue to provide nonpartisan information on elections and voting to the public. This indispensable election resource has helped millions of voters find state-specific information on how to register, the candidates and ballot initiatives, voting hours, absentee and early voting, and their polling place location. Even though 2011 was not a major election year, over 250,000 people visited VOTE411 during the year, and it was used by many Leagues to provide specific candidate information in their communities.

The League of Women Voters Education Fund has worked for decades to reform the redistricting process, which has long been corrupted by partisan gerrymandering and an appalling lack of transparency. Instead of voters choosing their elected officials, politicians have been allowed to go behind closed doors and handpick their constituents, in effect undermining our representative democracy.

To ensure that citizens were not shut out of the decennial redistricting process in 2011, the national Education Fund, with funding from the Open Society Foundations, launched a transparency-focused redistricting campaign, "Shining a Light." (Continued on next page)

Part III, lines 4 a, b, c and d, Exempt purpose achievements, continued: The national Education Fund supported state Leagues in California, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas and Virginia to ensure that district lines were drawn not to favor any political party or candidate, but to give all citizens their rightful representation. The Education Fund developed a range of resource materials and worked closely with each state League to develop state-specific objectives to promote a more open and transparent redistricting process.

With ongoing support from the Open Society Foundations, the Education Fund continued our Safeguarding U.S. Democracy educational campaign to promote the importance of fair and impartial courts nationwide. In the spring, the Education Fund completed our 18-month focus, "Quest for a More Diverse Judiciary" in support of greater gender diversity and more transparency in the judiciary in Kansas.

Throughout the campaign, Leagues held 38 public forums, reached approximately one million people through media coverage and web resources, and involved dozens of judges, legislators, nominating commissioners and other members of the legal profession.

In 2011, the LWV Education Fund received a grant from the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock in Manhasset, New York, to conduct an educational campaign on the importance of limiting money in elections. The Education Fund began the campaign in early 2012 to generate public demand for the urgent need for transparent, clean campaign financing.

The League of Women Voters Education Fund has long worked for strong public health and environmental protections. In 2011, the Education Fund kicked off our Clean Air Promise campaign to engage citizens, elected officials and community leaders around the country to join in making a simple promise to protect the health of our children and families by supporting clean air policies and other public health protections. With funding from the National Resources Defense Council and the Energy Foundation, the League aired TV ads on Washington, DC, network and national cable television stations and supported the efforts of state and local Leagues to encourage their communities to stand up for clean air.

The League of Women Voters Education Fund's commitment to democracy does not end at America's borders. Through our Global Democracy Program, Education Fund staff and members provide hands-on assistance to grassroots activists and organizations around the world, helping them increase civic engagement, make their governments more open, accountable and responsive to all their citizens, and build more democratic institutions from the ground up.

The Education Fund was contracted by Democracy International to assist with USAID-funded projects in Bangladesh and El Salvador. Zaida Arguedas, senior director of the League's Global Democracy Programs, traveled to Bangladesh to work with leaders there to devise strategies that will encourage party leaders to support women political candidates.

Ms. Arguedas also traveled to Egypt and Tunisia to meet with women leaders of civil society organizations and urge them to play a leading role in their historic transition to democracy. In addition, she traveled to Cuba where she spoke at an international conference on the role of women in the 21st century.

State and local Leagues play a unique and vital role in fostering democracy abroad through exchange and hosting programs. With funding from the Open World Leadership Center, five local Leagues in three states welcomed visitors from Azerbaijan, Georgia, Turkmenistan and Tajikistan for firsthand exposure to the U.S. political process and intense programming around themes of municipal governance, elections, media and participatory government. As part of our ongoing Legislative Fellows Program, Ms. Arguedas led two groups of U.S. Fellows, including League members, to Colombia and Brazil to promote grassroots dialogue, share political and cultural understanding, and strengthen bonds among citizens in the Americas.

The League of Women Voters Education Fund has remained a relevant and vital force in American society for almost a century by continually training confident, creative leaders. More than 300 Leagues in 32 states and the District of Columbia now participate in leadership training, led by 17 Ruth S. Shur Fellows and over 100 state coaches.

Part VI, line 6: The League of Women Voters Education Fund's only member is its sister organization, the League of Women Voters of the United States.

Part VI, line 7a: The governing board of the League of Women Voters Education Fund is elected by the Board of Directors of the League of Women Voters of the United States. The Board of Directors of the League of Women Voters of the United States elects the governing board of the League of Women Voters Education Fund for two-year terms beginning in even-numbered years. Currently, the governing boards of both organizations have the same membership.

Part VI, line 11A: The League's accounting staff prepares the Form 990, which is reviewed by the Executive Director and Deputy Executive Director before signing. The Executive Committee of the Board reviews the Form 990 with the executive staff soon after the Form 990 is filed.

Part VI, line 12c: The League of Women Voters Education Fund Chair and executive staff ensure that all officers, directors and key employees submit written conflict of interest statements. The Deputy Executive Director reviews and approves all contracts and payments to ensure that no conflicts of interest exist.

Part VI, line 15: The Board determines the goals of the Executive Director each year. The Chair conducts an annual review of the Executive Director based on these goals, which is supported by written documentation. The Chair uses the results of the annual review along with independently prepared comparability data to determine the Executive Director's compensation, which is documented on a form.
