Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Part I - The grant-making department manages the solicitation, review and award of grants to applicant organizations. The grant-making department requires documentation of exempt or tribal government status, a budget and narrative of the grantee's proposal and other relevant information. A First Nations committee reviews applications for consistency with First Nations' program objectives and other factors. Terms and conditions of each grant are documented and signed both by First Nations and the grantee. The terms and conditions require programmatic and financial reports from the grantee. The grant-making department monitors compliance with grant terms and conditions, including timely receipt of required reports. Normally grant funds are disbursed in multiple payments. Initial payment follows receipt of signed terms and conditions and subsequent payments are held until required reports are received, often halfway through and at the end of the grant period

Public Education

Through the use of print, electronic and personal contact methods, the public education program develops and implements strategies to increase public awareness about the organization and the current challenges facing rural reservation-based Native American communities. The program serves the educational and informational needs of tribes and Native non-profit organizations and leverages this awareness to increase support for the benefit of Native peoples throughout the nation.

Expenses: $132,351. Grants: $-0-. Revenue: $70.

First Nations Oweesta Corporation

By providing technical assistance and loan capital First Nations Oweesta Corporation seeks to enhance the capacity of tribes, Native communities and individuals to access, control, create, leverage, utilize, and retain financial assets and to provide access to appropriate financial capital for Native development efforts.

Expenses: $67,498. Grants: $-0-. Revenue: $-0-.

Combatting Predatory Lending

For Native Americans the impact of predatory lending is devastating because it destroys the potential for asset-building that is needed to bring economic security to Indian families and communities. First Nations' research has demonstrated that predatory lending is stripping money from low-income tribal citizens, especially those who are unbanked or under-banked. First Nations' studies on predatory lending in Indian Country include best practices to combat abusive lending and prevent the bleeding of assets from Native communities.

Expenses: $41,712. Grants: $-0-. Revenue: $-0-.

Native American Business Development

To create systemic economic change First Nations works with Native American communities in reclaiming direct control of their assets. Working directly with grassroots community partners, individuals and tribes First Nations supports and provides Native asset-development strategies and models to help communities understand, create and control the way in which Native assets are valued, as well as the decision-making process in deciding whether to monetize those assets.

Expenses: $20,199. Grants: $(8,150) (revoked). Revenue: $18,055.

Part VI - Question 11b

Board members are presented with draft copies of Form 990 and all schedules and attachments.

They are asked to review and approve it and to also disclose any potential conflicts of interest.

Part VI - Question 12 b&c

The By-laws provide the conflict of interest policy for board members. The employee handbook provides the conflict of interest policy for employees. The board is currently considering procedures to improve monitoring of compliance with these policies which is currently on a self-reporting basis.

Part VI - Question 15

Board members approve the President's salary and are informed of the salaries of other key employees.

They are all familiar with the not-for-profit sector and the environment First Nations works in and from which it recruits employees. Therefore the board has sufficient knowledge to evaluate and approve these salaries.

Part VI - Question 19

Governing documents and financial statements are available at the Organization's website and at Guidestar.org
