Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Region A Partnership for Children (RAPC) staff conduct separate program and financial monitoring of grantees. Programmatic monitoring consists of quarterly reports that provide data on outputs and outcomes. Annual visits to the grantee program sites are made to inspect program documentation, facilities, and discuss challenges and achievements.

An annual program monitoring report is issued to the service provider, the RAPC Executive Director and Board of Directors.

Financial monitoring consists of monthly financial status reports outlining program expenditures. Annual visits to the program site are also made to inspect supporting documentation and contract compliance. Issues of insufficient documentation, disallowed expenditures or non-compliance are addressed and an annual monitoring report is issued to the provider.

Throughout the process the organization's Executive Director is kept apprised of any issues requiring immediate attention. A summary of the process, findings, and service provider accomplishments is provided to the Board of Directors.

/decisions on which they are conflicted are read out loud during the Board meetings and noted in the minutes.

Part VI, 15a.

The nominating and governance committee oversees an executive search committee that conducts the executive director recruitment activities. This committee is responsible for advertising, vetting, interviewing and recommending the organization's executive director. This committee is also responsible for the analysis of compensation. Records of the process are retained by the board secretary.

In addition, The North Carolina General Statues require North Carolina Partnership for Children to develop an equitable pay scale for the Executive Directors of local partnerships such as the Region A Partnership for Children.

Part VI 19.

Governing documents are made available upon written request of the general public.

Part XII 1.

The Region A Partnership for Children's modified cash accounting method is mandated by the North Carolina Partnership for Children.

The following modification to the cash accounting method are made: unexpended advances to contractors that revert back to the State of North Carolina are recognized as a reduction to expenditures and an increase to net assets. In addition, amounts withheld from employee paychecks or other amounts received in an agency capacity are recorded as funds held for others. Additionally, Smart Start funds advanced to the Local Partnership that are unexpended and unearned at year end are recorded as funds Due to the State.

Part XII 2.

As outlined in North Carolina General Statues 143B-168.14.(b) the Region A Partnership for Children is subject to biannual audits.

The June 30, 2012 financial statements are scheduled for audit by the North Carolina Partnership for Children, however the audit was not performed as of the 990 filing date.
