Line 16 Other Expenses: Total $43326

Admin: Bank fees: $64, Member Support : $1994, National Association: $4257, Storage: $663

Communications, equipment, software, web site: $10227

Community Outreach Programs: $5832

Speaker Expenses: $20289

Part II – As we are on a cash basis, have no capital, no liabilities and no assets other than cash, we do not prepare a balance sheet. Although our fiscal year is from July 1 to June 30, we solicit dues for the following season starting in late April and many of our members pay in May or June. Therefore our cash position is quite high at the end of our fiscal year.

Part III – Affiliated with the World Affairs Council of America, the purpose of the 800 member WACHH is to inform and educate its members and the wider community about foreign policy issues.

To accomplish these objectives, WACHH has two programs, 14 Speakers throughout the year and an Outreach program open to the community in general and to the area schools.

The Speakers Program meets twice a month from October until May and offers WACHH members and their guests an extensive program on foreign affairs, economic and national security issues through presentations by foreign affairs practitioners, academicians, government, business and military leaders. In this fiscal year we had 14 such presentations. Attendance at these presentations averaged approximately 400 attendees. The direct cost for these programs was $20,289

Outreach has two elements. The first is a High School effort in which volunteers from WAC conduct presentations and lead foreign affairs discussion groups at local high schools. Additionally, we conduct a national program called Academic World Quest which involves all local public high schools. This year 50 students and faculty members were involved. The second is a series of programs open to members and non-members. The summer sessions are based on the Great Decisions book purchased through the National Association. The Fall Forum is different each year depending on current world events. These programs are funded by our member contributions.

Part III lines 28 through 32. We have not received any grants this year.
