Supplemental Information. Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the explanation required by Part II, line 10; Part II, line 17a or 17b; or Part III, line 12. Also complete this part for any additional information. (See instructions).

Facts And Circumstances Test
Part II, Line 17b--The Organization received a substantial amount of its support during 2010 and 2009 from contributions made directly or indirectly by the general public The Organization was established in 1963 and has a long history of broad support from the general public and receives significantly in excess of 10% of its support from these public sources It has a continuous and bone fide program for soliciting funds from the general public During 2008 the Organization had to cancel one of its fund raising events and during the last few years has experienced a decline in its fund raising due to general economic conditions During this time the Organization continued to perform its charitable purpose by providing scholarships, internships and educational assistance for college students The fund raising decline continued into 2009 and 2010 We believe public support will increase as economic conditions improve and in future years fund raising will return to normal levels

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Financial Accounting Standards Board has released FASB ASC topic 740, Income Taxes, which provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in financial statements. Adoption of FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, is required for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. The Association evaluates its uncertain tax positions using the provisions of FASB ASC topic 450, Contingencies. Management believes there are no material estimates that should be accrued as of June 30, 2012 and 2011. The Association is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for tax periods prior to 2009.
