1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Barry University is a Catholic institution of higher education founded in 1940 by the Adrian Dominican Sisters. Grounded in the liberal arts tradition, Barry University is a scholarly community committed to the highest academic standards in undergraduate, graduate and professional education in the Catholic intellectual life faithful to this tradition. A Barry education and university experience foster individual and communal transformation where learning leads to knowledge and truth, reflection leads to informed action, and a commitment to social justice leads to collaborative service. Barry University provides opportunities for affirming our Catholic identity, Dominican heritage, and collegiate traditions. Catholic beliefs and values are enriched by ecumenical and interfaith dialogue through worship and ritual, we celebrate our religious identity while remaining a university community where all are welcome.

2

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 141,588,272 including grants of $ 49,531,236) (Revenue $ 181,865,051)

Instructional services to graduate and undergraduate students. Barry University offers more than 100 undergraduate, graduate, professional, and doctoral programs to approximately 9,000 full and part-time students at multiple sites through the state of Florida.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 25,905,785 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 17,067,243)

Student services and auxiliary enterprises: the student affairs division of Barry University adheres to the philosophy that students succeed when all aspects of their development are at optimum level. To this end, the Student Affairs staff stands ready to serve as a support system for Barry students. The services available include the bookstore, campus ministry, career services, commuter student affairs, leadership and transition, commencement, counseling and psychological, dining, disability, health, intercultural center, public safety, residential life, student activities, student union, and volunteer and community services.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 13,152,709 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 2,696,300)

Academic support. Barry University offers academic support to students as it relates to library, computer, and learning center support. The Monsignor William Barry Memorial Library includes more than 950,000 items, over 40,000 print and on-line journal subscriptions and several thousand on-line books and streaming video resources. A significant strength is the excellent American Catholic collection. The Barry Library Information Services System Web (BLISSWeb) is the computerized online catalog of the library's holdings. BLISSWeb can be searched from terminals and computers in the library, computer labs, dorms, and offices across campus as well as at home and off-campus sites. The Library is a member of SEFLIN (South East Florida Library Information Network), the Online Computer Library Center (OCLC), a national library network, and Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET). The Barry University Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law houses an extensive collection of legal materials including Federal and State Statutes, case reporters and digests, monographs, treatises, secondary resources, legal periodicals, and newspapers, with a focus on Florida specific legal resources. Reference librarians with law degrees are available to assist with research and reference for students, faculty, and members of the Orlando legal community.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Explanation of Lobbying Activities	Part II-B, Line 1	Between July 1, 2011 and June 30, 2012, Barry University, as a member of the Independent Colleges and Universities of Florida (ICUF), advocated for legislation that would expand federal and state funding for independent colleges and universities. Furthermore, as a member of the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities, Barry appealed to members of Congress to support funding for Hispanic-serving institutions and increase funding for institutions of higher education, generally as a member of the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities. Barry University advocated for legislation at the national level for independent higher education. Similar public policy activity occurred at the state level. Specifically, at the federal level, lobbying activities occurred related to defense, energy and water, labor, health and human services, education and transportation/HUD within the state of Florida, the President of Barry University contacted members of legislation in person, via email and U S mail in support of ICUF priority legislation. In addition, a team of Barry volunteers visited the Capitol, meeting legislature in person, also in support of ICUF priority legislation.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of How Organization Reports Conservation Easements	Part II, Line 9	The University records the easement in its statement of financial position as part of the cost of the land purchased for the University's law school in Orlando.
	Part IV, Line 2b	The University acts as a custodian for funds held in trust until death of donor at which time, the funds will transfer to the University.
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The University's unrestricted endowments are restricted by the University's Board of Trustees. The Board can appropriate as much of the net appropriation on board-designated endowments as is prudent considering the University's present and anticipated financial requirements, expected total return on investments, price level trends, and general economic conditions. The income derived from permanently restricted endowed funds is to be used for various programs sponsored by the University in accordance with the donor's wishes and is classified as unrestricted or temporary restricted net assets, in accordance with the donor's wishes.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The University follows the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes, and has determined that as of June 30, 2012 and 2011, the University has no material unrecognized tax benefits. The University does not expect that unrecognized tax benefits will materially increase within the next twelve months.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Barry University uses the following process to review the Form 990. An external tax firm prepares the return with input from the University's controller. The Vice President of Business and Finance reviews, approves, and signs the return. The external tax firm electronically files the return on or before the due date including extensions.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	On an annual basis, under the conflict of interest policy, each covered person shall execute an annual disclosure statement disclosing the facts related to any covered relationship. Ongoing, a covered person shall disclose the existence and nature of any covered relationship and all material facts prior to the consideration of a proposed transaction or arrangement by the board (for a trustee or the president) or the ECA (executive committee of the administration) (for covered persons not trustees). In the event that a potential conflict of interest arises at a board meeting for a trustee or the president, then the covered person having such a covered relationship in any matter shall disclose any material facts as to such covered relationship to the board in the event that a potential conflict of interest arises outside a board meeting and/or for a covered person not a trustee, then the covered person having such a covered relationship in any matter shall disclose any material facts as to such covered relationship to the ECA. After disclosure by a trustee or the president to the board of a covered relationship and all material facts, and after any discussion with the covered person, he/she shall leave the board meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. After disclosure by anyone other than a trustee to the ECA of a covered relationship and all material facts, and after any discussion with the covered person, the ECA will discuss and vote upon the determination of a conflict of interest. A covered person that is a trustee or the president may make a presentation to the board, but after such presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the financial transaction or arrangement that causes a conflict of interest. The chairperson of the board, if appropriate in his/her discretion, may appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed financial transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the board shall determine whether the University can obtain a more advantageous financial transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous financial transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the board shall determine by a super majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the financial transaction or arrangement is in the university's best interest and for its own benefit and whether the financial transaction is fair and reasonable to the university and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the financial transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination. A covered person (not a trustee) may make a presentation to the ECA, but after such presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the financial transaction or arrangement that causes a conflict of interest. The ECA, if appropriate in its discretion, may appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed financial transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the ECA shall determine whether the university can obtain a more advantageous financial transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous financial transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the ECA shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested ECA members whether the financial transaction or arrangement is in the university's best interest and for its own benefit and whether the financial transaction is fair and reasonable to the university and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the financial transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination. If a majority vote cannot be attained by the ECA then the conflict of interest will be decided by the board. If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a trustee or president has failed to disclose one or more covered relationships, it shall inform the trustee or president of the basis for such belief and afford the trustee or president an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the response of the trustee or president and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the board determines that the trustee or president has in fact knowingly failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action as it deems proper in its sole discretion. The violation of this policy is a serious matter and may result in the removal of the trustee from the board or the termination of the president's contractual relationship with the university. If the ECA has reasonable cause to believe that a covered employee has failed to disclose one or more covered relationships, it shall inform the covered employee of the basis for such belief and afford the covered employee an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the response of the covered employee and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the ECA determines that the covered employee has in fact knowingly failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action as it deems proper in its sole discretion. The violation of this policy is a serious matter and may result in the termination of the covered employee's contractual relationship with the university. The minutes of the board or ECA relating to all conflicts of interest shall contain the following information: the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have covered relationships in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the covered relationship, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the board's or ECA's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed. The names of persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the financial transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternative to the proposed financial transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection therewith.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The President/CEO's compensation is reviewed annually, comparable data/information is reviewed. The compensation is in keeping with the University's guidelines. The Chairperson and the Executive Committee of the Board conduct the annual evaluation of the President. The discussions and decisions form part of the minutes to the board of trustees meeting.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The University makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and audited financial statements available to the public upon request. The 990 return of organization exempt from tax is public information.
	Form 990, Part VII	Sr. Linda Bevilacqua's compensation is paid directly to the Adrian Dominican Congregation.
Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances	Form 990, Part XI, line 5	Net unrealized losses on investments: -543,573. Donated services and use of facilities: 30,199. Change in net assets of affiliate: -312,000. Adjust to cash surrender value: 112,913. Total to Form 990, Part XI, Line 5: -712,461.
Explanation of Responsibility	Form 990, Part VII, Line 2c	The organization has a committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of its independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
