The O'Keefe Foundation makes grants to non-profit, charitable organizations that are federally tax-exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and are classified by the IRS as "not a private foundation." The Foundation also makes grants to governmental agencies. Grants are not made to individuals. Please note that as an operating foundation we are required by law to spend a major portion of our funds on O'Keefe Foundation programs. We are therefore quite limited in the amount of funds available for grants.

To be considered for a grant, your organization should please submit the following materials:

- This application form, completed in its entirety, including the required signature.
- A proposal summary of not more than one page that describes the purpose of your organization, explains why your organization is requesting this grant, tells how you will spend the grant, and states the outcomes you hope to achieve.
- A proposal of not more than five pages describing the request. The O'Keefe Foundation has no standard format for proposals. Please tell your story the way you find most appropriate. Often that story will include the following: Why the grant is needed; what the grant will be used to accomplish; how the grant will be used to accomplish that purpose; when the grant will be used; and who will plan and implement the uses of the grant. Please briefly describe the qualifications of the latter persons. Please describe in the proposal how this request relates to your organization's long-range planning and priorities. Also, please explain how you will evaluate the effectiveness of the use of this grant.
- A line-item budget (if applicable). If the request is for partial support of a project, please submit the entire project budget and show the projected amounts and sources of other financial and in-kind support for the project. If the project is to continue beyond the O'Keefe Foundation grant, please describe your plans for future project funding.
- A copy of your organization's letter of tax exempt status from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.
- A list of the members of the governing board of the organization.
- The most recent audit or financial statement of the organization submitting the proposal
- Any optional materials to supplement the proposal, if appropriate.

The directors of the Foundation meet regularly but only consider proposals semi-annually. To ensure timely consideration of your request, please send the above materials to the Foundation at least six months in advance of the date by which a funding decision is needed. If you have questions about the O'Keefe Foundation and its grant-making procedures, please call the Foundation staff at (228) 875-3841.

All information on this page pertains to the organization that is applying for the grant and accepting fiscal responsibility for any funds received.
