What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

GRO (Gallery Route One) is a nonprofit, community based, artist-run organization which provides professional exhibition space for visual artists in a rural setting. The gallery serves its local and regional communities by presenting varied exhibitions of contemporary art, and offers educational programs and related events such as lectures, performances and workshops. The organization adheres to a policy of equal access to artists from multi ethnic backgrounds and is committed to assisting artists from diverse backgrounds in presenting their work to the public.

Expenses
(Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 GRO was founded by 25 artists in 1983, and currently maintains a membership of 2025 artists. The organization supports two exhibition programs: members exhibitions and Project Space exhibitions, which feature guest artists. The Annex, a small, interior space, is available to GRO artists for a fee. We exhibit art in all media, including installation, but we do not regularly show crafts. Other GRO events include panel discussions, slide talks and Artists In the School, an on-going art program in the local public school.
