Housing and Community Development

 For nearly 90 years, Neighborhood Services Organization, Inc. and its predecessors have served those most in need -- Oklahoma City's impoverished, homeless and at-risk youths, adults and families. Throughout its history, NSO has focused on identifying the most pressing needs of our community's needy and implementing programs that address those needs effectively. Several programs, such as OKC Food Bank and others, were founded and nurtured by NSO before becoming independent service organizations. While we continue to identify current and future needs, our current programs include services in the areas of housing, monetary assistance and health services.

NSO has both transitional and permanent housing for those in need. Housing programs include: Affiliated organizations provide permanent supportive housing for chronically homeless, mentally ill adults. MARTHA'S HOUSE: Homeless families with multiple children reside in one of seven furnished, three-bedroom units at Martha's House. The transitional living program provides education and services to stop the cycle of poverty and homelessness. GATEWOOD HOME: Homeless pregnant young women find shelter, acceptance and opportunity at Gatewood Home. The transitional living program ensures residents gain the skills and services needed to become independent, successful mothers. CAROLYN WILLIAMS CENTER: This unique program provides transitional living for homeless male youths. Many of the youths come directly from foster care or youth shelters. They gain employment, life skills, education and services to ensure their future of self-sufficiency.

NSO's low-cost dental clinic allows individuals to receive high quality dental care at cost. Last year, we served more than 2,000 patients and conducted over 4,000 procedures.
