4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 5,650,111 including grants of $ 551,776) (Revenue $ 6,493,343)

The Post Oak School provides a comprehensive Montessori education, recognized by the Association Montessori Internationale (AMI) and accredited by the International Schools of the Southwest, to a diverse population of approximately 400 students from infancy through the eighth grade. In keeping with Dr. Montessori's ideals, children work in multi-age classrooms with a high level of freedom in choosing their own activity from those available. Carefully designed manipulative materials lay deep foundations in language, math, geography, science, music, and other disciplines. As evidence of this approach's success, in recent years 98% of graduating eighth graders have been accepted by their first or second choice of high school.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

The Post Oak School offers an extensive program of parent education. A free series of four classes, repeated throughout the year, offers general information about Montessori education to both prospective parents and interested visitors. The infant-parent program helps parents of toddlers to raise happy, self-confident children. A variety of other classes, lectures, and other presentations during the school year, some free and open to the public and others by reservation, afford a variety of perspectives on the School's primary purpose of raising intelligent, confident, caring, and self-motivated lifelong learners.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Community service is deeply ingrained in the Montessori curriculum, from infancy through adolescence. By the time of Middle School, the entire class spends a half day each week working in small groups at various service agencies around Houston. Elementary students have ongoing relationships with other groups, whether through regular site visits for volunteer work or by working on projects to benefit needy people in more distant places. Older children routinely learn the benefits and blessing of aiding others in the school's multi-age classrooms. Even the infants, living in a small tight-knit community, discover early on that other people have feelings.
