Pt X The Van Cliburn Foundation, Inc. and the Van Cliburn Trust are exempt from federal income tax in accordance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for tax on any unrelated business income. The Foundation had no material unrelated business income during the year. In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined the Foundation is not a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Foundation follows the provisions of FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, which requires financial statement recognition and disclosure for uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Management considers the likelihood of changes by taxing authorities to its filed income tax returns and recognizes liability for or disclosed potential significant changes that are more likely than not to occur upon examination by tax authorities, including changes to the Foundation's tax-exempt status. Management believes the Foundation met the requirements to maintain its tax-exempt status and has not identified any uncertain tax positions that would require recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. With few exceptions, the Foundation's federal income tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities and may change upon examination.
