Tax positions taken related to the Agency's tax exempt status, unrelated business activities taxable income and deductibility of expenses and other miscellaneous tax positions have been reviewed, and management is of the opinion that material positions taken would more likely than not be sustained by examination. Accordingly, the Agency has not recorded an income tax liability for uncertain tax benefits.

For the year ended June 30, 2012, there were no interest or penalties related to income taxes recorded or included in the consolidated financial statements As of June 30, 2012, the Agency's tax years 2009 through 2011 remain subject to examination.

Part III - Line 4d

Child day care services - assistance to working parents by providing safe, affordable day care for children from 6 months to 5 years

Adoption services - program offers life-affirming alternative, available through a range of adoption services. Applications are accepted from residents from North and East Texas considering adoption.

Community services - program consists of referral, transportation, and other services, as well as a thrift store which provides pick-up and delivery of furniture, clothing and other home furnishings to needy families in the Dallas area.

Financial Education and Assistance - Emergency assistance is provided to help pay rent and utilities, as well as food from pantries.

Clients receiving assistance are provided with financial education to develop budgeting and money management skills.

Elderly services - clients are provided with a hot, nutritious breakfast and lunch. Social activities, health screenings, and transportation to the grocery store and health care providers is offered as well.

Part VI - Line 11 - The 990 is provided to the Board of Directors prior to its submission.

Part VI - Line 12c - All Board members and advisory board members are required to complete a conflict of interest certification on an annual basis.

Part VI - Line 15b - In 2010, the advisory board's finance committee reviewed the compensation of the Associate Director of Operations (CFO) and the Associate Director of Philanthropy relative to other Catholic Charities throughout the country as well as compared to the survey of local not-for-profits compiled by the Community Council of Greater Dallas.

Based on this review, salaries were in alignment with other comparable not-for-profits.

In conjunction with the search for the current CEO, an executive search firm was engaged. Based on their experience and review of similar organizations, they recommended an appropriate compensation to a Search Committee appointed by the Board of Directors.

The Search Committee reviewed and approved the recommendation; the Board of Directors did likewise.

Part VI - Line 19 - All 990's, annual audits, governing documents (minutes, charter and bylaws) as well as conflict of interest statements are available at Catholic Charities administrative offices to anyone who desires to review them.
