Form 990-EZ, Part III - Primary Exempt Purpose

The mission of Compass Institute is to create a new generation of ethical leaders, active citizens, and innovative thinkers through service-learning and social entrepreneurship. To accomplish that, we provide leadership nationally and internationally through professional development, curriculum development, evaluation, program development, and coaching to non-profits, schools, universities, foundations, correctional facilities, and governments.

University of Minnesota Outreach: The University is a land-grant university that does outreach throughout the state. Compass Institute funds support outreach to K-12 schools, youth social entrepreneurs, correctional facilities, and governmental organizations throughout the Youth Studies program in the School of Social Work. These services, because of Compass Institute funds, are provided free, and include helping plan and run an annual peace education conference in the Twin Cities that features bringing together a Nobel Peace Prize winner with 400 high school and college youth.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 29 - Second Accomplishment

International Youth Foundation: Comass Institute provides program support, curriculum development, and training for the development of global youth social entrepreneurs-young leaders in their 20's that have started innovative and promising civil society organizations. This year we led a seven-day leadership retreat in Cuernavaca, Mexico for 20 of the best global leaders from 17 countries. The Compass Institute YouthActionNet curriculum for youth leadership and service has been translated into Spanish and Turkish and is being used in eight countries by universities and NGO's.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 30 - Third Accomplishment

Sub-Grant from the National Service-Learning Partnership: Development of a website for service-learning professionals (The Providers' Network) and to develop and share service-learning materials and technical assistance. The website averages 13,000 vistors a month and provides Powerpoints, handouts,
