Part II - Dignity Health's executive compensation philosophy is designed to assist Dignity Health in attracting and retaining the caliber of executives required to enable Dignity Health to fulfill its mission of providing high quality healthcare for all persons regardless of their ability to pay for services, improving the quality of life in the communities Dignity Health serves, promoting patient and employee satisfaction, and ensuring financial stability. A substantial portion of executive compensation is performance based and is linked to organizational goals approved in advance by the Human Resources and Compensation Committee. These goals include attainment of annual and long-term financial performance, certain healthcare quality standards and Dignity Health's commitment to serving the poor and disenfranchised in the communities it serves. Total compensation, which includes base salary, annual and long-term incentive compensation, targets the 75th percentile of the market in which Dignity Health competes for executives, commensurate with the size and complexity of the organization.
