| Form 990-EZ Part III | 28 | |
| Form 990-EZ Part III | 29 | Media Artist services included support for video projects produced by independent artist members of Pan Left We gave administrative service, access to media equipment, and guidance towards these productions that reflect the social issues affecting this community There were over 30 videos produced and added to our catalog of work from Pan Left artists and we were awarded Best of Arizona at the Arizona International Film festival |
| Form 990-EZ Part III | 30 | Media Education programs were offered through workshops that taught media literacy and digital media production skills for youth, adults, and community groups Pan Left collaborated with local and state organizations such as county libraries and high schools where these free programs were offered for people with low-income and limited access to media making resources These programs served over 100 youth throughout the year and helped bring new membership to the organization to continue their production work |
| Form 990-EZ Part III | 31 | Community outreach programs consisted of events that highlight Pan Left work and sponsoring grassroots groups and artists working for social change Our youth showcase screenings allowed youth share their videos in a movie theater for audiences and our fiscal sponsorships helped community members continue their work for human rights in Arizona and create media |
