	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 was prepared under the guidance of the organization's Director by the independent accounting firm SCHOEDEL & SCHOEDEL, Certified Public Accountants, PLLC Draft copies of the organization's financial statements and Form 990 were first provided to the organization's Director who reviewed the Form 990 for accuracy and completeness Any questions, concerns, or issues raised by the Director were addressed, and any necessary revisions were made to the Form 990 The revised Form 990 was then provided to the Board of Trustees for its review and approval Any additional questions, concerns, or issues raised by the Board of Trustees were addressed, and any necessary revisions were made to the Form 990 The final version of the Form 990 was reviewed, approved, and filed by the Board of Trustees
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Trustees, service providers, or any other person having responsibility for the management or administration of the Trust's finances, investments, or other proprietary information concerning the Trust are considered interested persons An interested person is under a continuing obligation to disclose any potential conflict of interest to the Board of Trustees as soon as it is known or reasonably should be known The interested person is given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Trustees when considering the proposed transaction or arrangement After disclosure of the financial, professional, or personal interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she leaves the Trustees meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is considered If the disinterested Trustees determine a conflict of interest exists, the Chairman of the Board, if appropriate, appoints a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement After exercising due diligence, the Trustees determine whether the Trust can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board or committee determines by majority vote of the disinterested Trustees whether the transaction agreement or arrangement is in the Trust's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable In conformity with the above determination the Trustees make a decision as to whether to enter into the transaction agreement or arrangement The minutes of the meeting reflect that the conflict disclosure was made to the Board, the vote taken and, where applicable, the abstention from voting and participation by the interested party Whenever possible, the minutes frame the decision of the Board in such a way to provide guidance for consideration of future conflict of interest situations To ensure the Trust operates in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, the Board of Trustees conducts periodic reviews The periodic reviews include, at a minimum, the following subjects Whether the contractual arrangements with service providers and the services provided are reasonable, based on competent market and survey information, and the result of arm's length negotiation Whether contractual arrangements with service providers and arrangements with other organizations conform to written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further tax-exempt purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction Whether any transaction conducted by the Trust during the review period involves or could possibly give rise to a conflict of interest
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Director and employee compensation is determined and approved by the Board of Trustees using comparable data from within the local area and surrounding jurisdictions
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Trust's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, financial statements and Form 990 are available to the general public upon written request sent to the organization at 3210 East Ferry Avenue, Spokane, WA 99202
