4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 1,852,776 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Hamlin Robinson School offers a full day enriched educational program for students in Grades 1 - 8 with dyslexia and other related language difficulties. The comprehensive curriculum which includes language arts, reading, math, science, technology, and the arts utilizes multi-sensory education methods designed to help students with language difficulties achieve academic success. Within the rich educational program, the School focuses on concepts, comprehension, skill building, self advocacy, and helping students discover the joy of learning. Children come from over a 50 mile radius and from both public and private schools. Many students enter the school testing below grade level and return to private and/or public high schools with confidence and success.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 138,981 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Other achievements include speech and language therapy offered by a licensed SLP for current students of the regular school program. This program is offered for a fee during the academic school year. Parent education for current students and other community members is offered throughout the year at no charge. Topics may include the social impact of dyslexia, legal issues for IEP and 504 plans, and participation in a dyslexia simulation.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 91,563 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Hamlin Robinson School offers an after school program. This program offers enrichment activities to students of the regular school program. Activities range from ultimate frisbee, cross-country running club, and tai kwan do to ceramics, photography, and guitar lessons. The program is a continuation of the day program where children are given the opportunities to experience success and cultivate other life long skills. This program includes the Homework Club, an after school program that offers assistance and proctoring for students as they complete daily homework assignments. This program is offered to students of the regular school program. Another after school program offered is Tutoring and Screening offered to both regular school program students and as an outreach to students in the community. The classes are individual and may focus on language arts, reading, or math. Screenings are offered for those not in the regular school program whose families desire a thorough screening for the possibility of a language disability.
