	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Form 990 prepared by an outside accounting firm is provided to the six member executive committee of the board of directors for review prior to filing with the IRS. Notification of its availability is given to all other board members at that time. Review points are provided by the members of the executive committee to the treasurer (s). The treasurer's review includes responses to the review points and ties key line items per Form 990 to amounts reported in our internally prepared financial reports.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	To demonstrate to the community the integrity of the WHWF allocation process, Board members must provide written disclosure any conflict of interest with organizations that have applied for financial assistance to the WHWF. Such conflict can be described as involvement with the organization, its board, the program or personnel. Board members will be expected to refrain from participation in the allocation deliberations as it relates to a conflict. A possible exception is when a Board member has information pertaining to the organization or program that the Board deems essential to decision-making. Board meeting minutes will serve as a record of any board member being determined as unqualified to participate in funding decisions. Conflict of interest statements are kept on file and updated annually or sooner as needed.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18	A copy of the tax documents will be provided to the requestor who has provided a written or in-person request at the principal office of the organization. If the request for copies is made in person, the request will generally be honored on the day of the request, if the request is written, faxed, e-mailed or sent by private courier then the organization will comply within 30 days of less. We reserve the right to charge copying fees and will advise the requestor in advance if charges apply.
