Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization is exempt from Federal and State income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and has been classified as an Organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been included in the consolidated financial statements. The Organization recognizes the tax benefit from uncertain tax positions only if it is more likely than not that the tax positions will be sustained on examination by the tax authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit is measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Effective with the year ended June 30, 2011, the Organization elected the expenditure test under section 501(h) as an alternative method for measuring lobbying activity. The election provides a specific dollar amount the organization can spend on lobbying during the year without the burden of proving the amount is not substantial. Management believes the Organizations lobbying activities are within limits allowed by relevant tax law. The Organizations Federal Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax) for the years ended June 30, 2009, 2010, and 2011 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed. No penalties and interest were assessed on tax filings for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011.

		Client Note 1 - FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4A-PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS Domestic Public Education -- Few Americans realize that human trafficking is so prevalent in the United States Shared Hope International (SHI) understands that victims are not invisible, just misidentified By educating communities, raising awareness, engaging key players, and focusing on demand deterrence, SHI is generating the change needed to put a stop to child sex trafficking SHI's national awareness initiative was carried across the United States incorporating visual, educational, grassroots, policy and media-centered events to maximize impact in each location SHI staff collaborated with local organizations and city leaders to spread the word that "Kids are not for sale" in their communities Specific to Indianapolis, Shared Hope planned and engaged in awareness activities about the sex trafficking that takes place in conjunction with the Super Bowl SHI has continued to develop a wide variety of materials and programs to spread awareness and provide education on domestic minor sex trafficking, the issue of and sex slavery and the impact of buyer demand around the world In addition to hosting and participating in awareness events, SHI provided materials to supporters and friends to raise awareness in their own communities Ambassadors of Hope and Defenders USA programs were expanded significantly in FY 2012 to develop knowledgeable spokespersons who could function as extensions of Shared Hope staff, reaching a broader segment of the public to increase understanding about sex trafficking SHI offered a variety of trainings applicable to many different agencies and organizations that may come in contact with victims of domestic minor sex trafficking Trainings are customized for specific roles involved in the identification, rescue and restoration of victims of sex trafficking including members of the community as well as those in professions such as law enforcement, juvenile justice, and social services After announcing the results of the Protected Innocence Challenge in December 2011 which graded states on their laws that impact the issue of child sex trafficking, this justice initiative was incorporated into public education and training in order to expand knowledge about the need for just laws and how to advocate for them FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4B-PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS -- Shared Hope International (SHI) has worked around the world since 1998 to rescue and restore victims of sexual slavery Recognizing the intense trauma experienced by victims through the commercial sex industry, SHI has formed lasting partnerships with local organizations in four countries to fund programs that offer holistic, long-term care to women and children Each of these programs offers a survivor-informed model of care that focuses on counseling, empowerment and healing Villages of Hope- SHI's restoration programs are developed and operated by local partners, addressing both immediate and long-term needs of each victim of trauma, exploitation or trafficking Restoration services include a holistic approach with residential facilities, medical and mental health care, education, job training and economic development programs Villages of Hope are safe communities that offer refuge and restoration to rescued victims of sexual slavery and their children SHI currently funds Villages or Homes of Hope in Fiji, Nepal, India, and Jamaica HIV Clinics- Shared Hope International partners with an organization in India to run both a stationary and mobile HIV/AIDS clinic in the heart of Mumbai's red light district Both clinics provide contact to hundreds of women and children in the infamous district every month, offering compassion, counseling and life-saving medications to those who need help or who wish to flee the sex industry The stationary clinic provides a haven for those women infected with HIV to receive proper testing, medicine and nutrition It is the only area clinic offering free assistance for treatment The mobile clinic brings supplies and food into remote parts of the city, reaching those who may not be bold enough to visit the stationary clinic The WIN International Program- The Women's Investment Network (WIN) program focuses on developing small businesses around the world that provide training and employment for the women in SHI's Villages of Hope Studies show that providing victims with the skills and means of creating their own economic sustainability helps remove the risk of re-victimization found in areas of extreme poverty and exploitation Our residents receive leadership development and financial independence Today, SHI's successful WIN program is active in India, Jamaica, Fiji and Nepal Training programs include cosmetology, jewelry-making, bakeries, print services, tailoring and leather-making FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4C-PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS DOMESTIC PARTNERS -- Shared Hope International (SHI) partnered with organizations across the United States to fund street outreach for at-risk and trafficked women and children These programs literally meet the girls where they are and provide resource hot lines, clothing, food, shelter placement and medical care Partners work to support girls in order for them to escape a life of brutality, control and sexual violence Rescue falls short without proper restoration That is why SHI has committed to providing holistic, long-term, survivor-informed care for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking From therapy to homeschooling and beyond, girls were given much-needed resources as well as love, affection and a safe home to live in FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4D-PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS DOMESTIC (WIN) PROGRAM -- The Domestic WIN Program is designed to help women develop skills and gain practical job experience Typically these women have had difficult life experiences such as domestic abuse, childhood abuse from the commercial sex industry, drug addiction and/or time in a correctional facility These experiences have left the women with low self-esteem and a lack of employable skills Many of the women who enter the program have faced homelessness and lost custody of their children due to their life circumstances During the year ended June 30, 2012, the nine-month WIN training program provided an opportunity for four women to learn job skills so they can enter/reenter the work force and support themselves and their families In addition to job skills, these women learned how to work in a professional environment and developed personal life skills so they can build confidence and self-esteem DEFENDERS PROGRAM -- The Defenders USA is a national initiative of Shared Hope International to mobilize men in the fight to end demand for prostitution children These men are taking a stand to impact the issue by hosting awareness events and activities across the US that specifically engage other men - these include motorcycle rallies, tailgating parties and truck stop outreaches Defenders take a pledge that commits them to saying "no" to pornography or any sexual abuse of women and children and to protecting communities from predators To date, over 2,000 men have taken the pledge INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC EDUCATION -- The Organization provided information to educate the public and to motivate and provide opportunities for taking action concerning the global problem of the trafficking of women and children for sexual exploitation
