Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

To maintain and expand primary health care in Alaska through the support of organizations that provide comprehensive family oriented primary care without regard to the patient's ability to pay. APCA's purpose is to promote and advocate for primary health care centers, individuals who deliver health care, and systems that facilitate the delivery of primary health care to the under served in Alaska without regard to their ability to pay; and encouraging cooperation between primary health care centers and other health care providers in Alaska.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

The program service accomplishments of APCA, Inc. consist of three main parts:

1. Technical assistance services - Provide technical assistance to member primary care clinics on issues such as clinical quality control, health information technology, telepharmacy, and other similar technologies within the clinics.

2. Advocacy - APCA serves as a voice for Community Health Centers on current policy, monitors and reports on policy issues and acts as a liaison to convey CHC messages to the appropriate individuals.

3. Member Services - APCA provides a variety of support services to its member CHC's such as assisting in recruitment efforts to bring qualified health care professionals to the State and assisting clinics with resource development.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder
