Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	Renown Health undergoes an annual analysis of its various tax positions, assessing the likelihood of these positions being upheld upon examination with relevant tax authorities, as defined by the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Renown Health believes that it is compliant with all IRS tax regulations and as of June 30, 2012 has not recorded a tax liability for a tax uncertainty. Renown Health would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred. Under normal circumstances, Renown Health is no longer subject to federal tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2	Bernard Carter and James Miller have a business relationship because they serve together on the board of a related taxable entity

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b	There was no committee during the year that had the broad authority to act on behalf of the board

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared by the organization's tax department with support from a certified tax preparer. The form is reviewed by the organization's Chief Accounting Officer and/or the Chief Financial Officer prior to the final Form 990 being sent to the board. The IRS Form 990, as filed with the IRS, is sent to each voting member of the Renown Health Board prior to filing. Along with the forms, the Renown Health board is provided with a narrative that explains the various parts of the Form and their content.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	On an annual basis at or prior to the first regular meeting following the election of new board members, the members of the Renown Health Board are given an Annual Disclosure Statement. They are expected to perform a reasonable investigation into their business, financial, family or significant personal relationships to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest. If, in connection with a proposed transaction or arrangement involving a Renown Health entity, a board member discovers that an actual or possible conflict of interest has arisen that was not disclosed on the Annual Statement, then the board member must disclose the existence and nature of his or her financial interests to the remaining directors that are considering the proposed transaction or arrangement in a timely manner. If a board member discloses an actual or possible conflict of interest, the board member shall leave the board or committee meeting while the remaining board members discuss the financial interest. The remaining board members shall vote upon and decide whether a conflict of interest actually exists. If the remaining board members determine that a conflict does exist, then appropriate measures are taken to ensure the issue is addressed.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Renown Health's executive compensation is set by the Renown Health Compensation Committee. Members of this committee review and approve various employee pay practices and parameters, as well as compensation for the CEO and certain executives. The Compensation Committee is comprised of independent members of the Renown Health Board of Directors unrelated to and not subject to the control or undue influence of executives, with no material financial interest in transactions of the Company or any other perceived or actual conflicts of interest. The Compensation Committee members are appointed by the Chairman of the Renown Health Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee meets approximately five times per year. Meeting minutes are kept documenting the deliberations and decisions regarding the compensation arrangements. Total cash compensation for the organization's executives is targeted at competitive compensation levels, relative to market surveys of comparable healthcare organizations, based upon the level of performance required to achieve the targeted compensation levels. Base compensation and total cash compensation is reviewed at a minimum of every two years in comparison to the surveys for comparable businesses and responsibilities and adjusted as to maintain equity with the survey information. The Compensation Committee undertook the process outlined above for the fiscal year 2012 executive compensation.
