Part X- FIN 48 Footnote

APIAHF is exempt from income taxation under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3) and the California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701(d). The Internal Revenue Service has determined that APIAHF is not a private foundation. GAAP provides accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by APIAHF in its federal and state returns except organization tax returns are more likely than not

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

The Asian & Pacific Islander American Health Forum (APIAHF) is a national advocacy organization to promote policy, program and research efforts for improving the health of Asian and Pacific Islanders in the United States and U.S. affiliated jurisdictions in the Pacific. APIAHF programs and projects are categorized as follows:

1. Capacity Building Programs: APIAHF provides technical assistance, training and tools to community based organizations to enhance their capacity to serve and advocate for their communities. It is designed to enhance the ability of community based organizations to plan, deliver, monitor and evaluate effective, evidence-based prevention interventions and strategies. The program also works with community leaders to develop the internal infrastructure (e.g. finance, human resources, governance) to support these interventions and to build lasting organizations.

2. Community & Engagement Services: APIAHF provides opportunities for community members, service providers, researchers and advocates to network and share their expertise and recommendations with each other and with policy makers to promote the health and well-being of Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders.

APIAHF disseminates promising practices, analyses, and information including data and research through conferences, convenings, and electronic media including APIAHF's website, social media, and publications. This allows network partners to utilize these resources for their own local and state based work, while contributing to a body of knowledge and action that is organized by APIAHF at the national level. These programs also award grants and provide other resources to community members, service providers, researchers to promote the health and well-being of Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders.

3. Health Policy Development: APIAHF advocates for health equity in health services and all policies, for greater access to care and insurance coverage for all vulnerable populations, and for accurate representation of the health needs of distinct and diverse Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities, robust research and data development and responsive external relationship development.

4. Domestic Violence Program: The Asian & Pacific Islander Institute on Domestic Violence is a national resource center on domestic violence, sexual violence, trafficking, and other forms of gender-based violence in Asian and Pacific Islander communities. It serves a national network of advocates; community-based service programs; national and state organizations; legal, health, and mental health professionals; researchers; policy advocates; and activists from social justice organizations. It analyzes critical issues; promotes culturally relevant intervention and prevention; provides consultation, technical assistance and training; conducts and disseminates research; and informs public policy with the goals of strengthening advocacy, changing systems, and preventing gender violence through community transformation to fulfill its vision of gender democracy. APIAHF is the fiscal sponsor for the program effective June 1, 2012.

5. Special Projects: APIAHF delivers convenings and conferences bringing together community based partners, government officials, congressional leaders, and health advocates to highlight the health needs and disparity among the Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities.
