College Emergency Grants - Grants were given to selected MVFC youth program participants who were in need of emergency financial assistance for college--related expenses, including tuition, fees and books. Need is determined through an application process which takes into account the student's and/or student's household income, as well as current and past school grades, and final approval is obtained from the funding agency prior to release of grant funds. Students were monitored by the Educational Coordinator, to ensure the successful completion of their course work.

UCLA Extension Grants - Grants were given to current MVFC preschool parents who wished to attend UCLA Extension classes leading to a certification in Early Childhood Education. Participating parents were monitored to ensure their proper enrollment and completion of the classes; in addition, they were required to participate as classroom volunteers for six hours per week, thus gaining critical on-the-job training as well.

Emergency Assistance Grants - Specific grant funding was obtained that allowed MVFC to offer one-time emergency grants to low-income families of program participants who had a critical need related to food or shelter, due to unforeseen circumstances such as the loss of a job, or the sickness, injury or death of an income-earning family member. Need is determined through an application process which takes into account the individual's level of participation in MVFC programs and the community, and their household income must be at or below the poverty level. If necessary, referrals to other agencies are made, so that they can receive additional services that would help support their long-term stability.

Part III: STATEMENT OF PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS, LINE 4a

Early Childhood Education Program

The ECE program has two components: (1) Baby and Me classes for infants 0-3 (70) and their mothers and/or caregivers (75), leading to positive learning experiences that will serve as the foundation for social, emotional and cognitive development. (2) The two-year parent participation preschool enrolled 53 children from low-income and poverty-level families, and is based on MVFC's philosophy that parents must be empowered to be partners in their children's education. In lieu of tuition, 53 parents each participated one day per week (for a total of more than 10,500 hours) as assistant teachers, which allowed them not only to assist the preschool staff, but also to develop and practice important parenting and life skills. The early childhood education for the preschool children included art, dramatic play, music and storytelling - all of which allowed the children to achieve age-appropriate physical, cognitive, literacy, social and emotional competencies and to be fully ready for elementary school.

PART III: STATEMENT OF PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS, LINE 4b

Youth Program

Low-income community youth, ages 13-21 (total 91) took part in leadership and job skills development training workshops and activities aimed at teaching transferable job skills, including personal responsibility, problem-solving, communications and goal-setting. These youth, in turn, organized and supervised year-round educational and enriching activities for the younger youth, ages 5-12, which included a six-week summer camp (120 children, youth and volunteers), after-school tutoring and computer lab (160 children and youth), pre-teen boys and girls groups (45 youth), basketball (70 youth), art, music, exercise and dance classes (110 youth), and holiday events for more than 200 children. The 91 youth who participated in the leadership program also received college preparation counseling to facilitate their access to community colleges and universities, and they also organized and led the By Youth For Youth Annual Conference, which brought together nearly 50 youth leaders from local organizations who presented their programs and shared common problems and possible solutions. In addition, more than 6,800 hours were donated by local college students who participated as tutors to middle and high school students enrolled in MVFC's programs.

PART III, STATEMENT OF PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS, LINE 4c

Community

MVFC involves the community in the administration of its programs and provides opportunities for local residents to personally grow and develop life skills. At monthly meetings, parents identified problems in the community and explored ways to advocate for their needs with local officials, schools and legislators. Senior citizens ran their own programs, including computer, cooking, nutrition and art classes. A community cafe provided evening meals in its community kitchen to over 100 local children and youth. More than 2,000 local residents participated in MVFC's community activities, including an art and music festival, annual literacy fair, holiday posada and street clean-up days.

PART VI: GOVERNANCE, MANAGEMENT AND DISCLOSURE, LINE 10

The Form 990 is reviewed by the Finance Committee, which is comprised of the Board Treasurer and three other Board members, all of whom have a background in finance or legal services. The Form 990 is distributed to the Finance Committee, which then meets to review it. Any changes are sent back to the CFO/Finance Director, who incorporates the changes and then sends it back to the Committee for a final review and approval. The Form 990 is then distributed to the Board of Directors, approved for filing, and filed with the IRS.

PART VI: GOVERNANCE, MANAGEMENT AND DISCLOSURE, LINE 12c

Each director or committee member, upon their election or re-election, and each person upon his or her appointment to a principal office, and every three years thereafter while holding the office, must sign a Conflict of Interest Affirmation. Periodic reviews are conducted to determine whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the result of arm's length bargaining, and where partnerships, joint ventures and arrangements with management organizations conform to MVFC's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable prposes and do not result in an excess benefit transaction or a self-dealing transaction.

PART XI: RECONCILIATION OF NET ASSETS, OTHER CHANGES, LINE 5

$9,802 in non-cash silent auction item donations were included in income on Form 990 (see Part VIII, Line 1g), per instructions, but were not included in audited financial statements.
