Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The organization provides support for education, food, clothing, medicine and other needs to equip the children and adults with the tools necessary for life enhancement while helping to preserve the culture of the people which is primarily of Tibetan and Buddhist heritage in Tibet, India and Nepal.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 8 - Explanation of No Contemporaneously Documentation of Meetings

The Himalayan Children's Fund is a very small organization with only three volunteer staff: Director, Treasurer and Secretary. Generally these three volunteers discuss and document the work and distribution of funds, however, during this year both the treasurer and secretary have been less available and will be resigning. Finding new volunteers takes time so the work of the organization was solely conducted by the director. The documentation of meetings was not possible with a group of one. The director does take direction from the overseeing guidance of Thrangu Rinpoche and the administrators in charge of the projects that HCF funds and all financial records are given on a yearly basis to Thrangu Rinpoche for review.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

In this current year the director is the only person to review the 990 form for the Himalayan Children's Fund as the other two volunteers (treasurer and secretary) have been less available and will be resigning and no replacements could be made in staff before the end of the fiscal year. It is our policy to have the 990 form reviewed by treasurer and director but in the absence of any other available officers for this year the Director needed to act as the full staff.
