4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a	(Code	) (Expenses $	9,304,494	including grants of $	) (Revenue $	10,056,534)
	The Foundation's mission is to offer student teaching opportunities to college students majoring in education and to develop afterschool programs. The Foundation contracts with elementary, junior high, and high schools and others to provide teaching fellows for afterschool education and tutoring. Approximately 835 teaching fellows helped over 13,000 students each month at school sites during the current fiscal year. The Foundation operates one major program. The program receives its revenue from service fees and conducts its own programs at the school sites and contracts with other service providers to provide program content and administration. The Foundation is supported primarily by fees for services and grants and contributions. The Foundation's program is primarily conducted in (but is not limited to) Fresno County.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The organization recognizes the financial statement benefit of an uncertain tax position only after considering the probability that a tax authority would sustain the position in an examination. For tax positions meeting a "more likely than not" threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the benefit expected to be realized on settlement with the tax authority. For tax positions not meeting the threshold, no financial statement benefit is recognized. As of July 31, 2012, the organization had no uncertain tax positions. The organization recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense. Income tax returns prior to 2007 are no longer subject to examination by tax authorities. The organization is relying on its exempt status and its adherence to all applicable laws and regulations to preserve that status.
