	Part I, Line 1a	The University owns a personal residence on the University campus in which the President is required to live. The benefit qualifies as non-taxable employer provided housing in accordance with the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 119. Because the property is owned by the University and on University grounds, maintenance is provided by the University. In addition, the President's wife accompanies the President on various University events for which travel is required. These travel arrangements are paid by the University.
