Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 requires that the organization provide the text of the footnote to the organization's financial statements that reports the organization's liability for uncertain tax positions under ASC 740 (formerly FIN48). ASC 740 (formerly FIN48) addresses the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribes a threshold of more-likely-than-not for recognition and de-recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The adoption of ASC 740 (formerly FIN48) by BSHSI on September 1, 2007 did not have a material impact on BSHSI's Consolidated financial statements. As the organization does not conduct a separate audit of its financial statements, below is the related statement from the Bon Secours Health System, Inc. consolidated audited financial statements. The System and most of its subsidiaries (including certain joint venture entities) are exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The system accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC Topic 740 (formerly FIN48). Income taxes of the System's for-profit subsidiaries are not material to the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The System's taxable subsidiaries have approximately $95,733 and $89,500 of net operating loss carryforwards as of August 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively, which expire in varying periods through 2032 and are available to offset future taxable income. The System's deferred tax assets are fully reserved at August 31, 2012 and 2011. Any changes to the valuation allowance on the deferred tax asset are reflected in the year of the change.

On an annual basis, all persons subject to the policy, including all officers, directors and key employees are required to make certain disclosures. These include disclosures related to certain personal, financial and organizational relationships that may present a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict of interest with the organization. All disclosures go through a three-part review process: (1) disclosures are reviewed first by the corporate responsibility officer (CRO), (2) a governance team comprised of the CEO, board president, board chair, CRO, and the BSHSI CRO participate in a second review of all disclosures during which recommendations are made as to the resolution of any conflicts or potential conflicts. Depending on the facts and circumstances, resolutions may include ongoing disclosure, recusal or removal of the conflict, and (3) all disclosures and recommendations are reviewed by a board committee (audit and compliance committee reviews the disclosures of management and the governance committee reviews the disclosures of the board and board committee members).

The compensation committee consists of a group of independent board members and engages independent external compensation consultant to ensure they receive appropriate analysis of market and follow the practices necessary to obtain full compliance with the IRS's rebuttable presumption of reasonableness. The committee establishes and maintains a compensation philosophy, reviews pay practices against local, regional and national healthcare organizations and approves all remunerative decisions for this group of individuals. The committee reviews and receives assurances that all levels of pay within the organization are reasonable based on performance and validates incentives are met. These decisions are documented in the BSHSI board of director's and compensation committee minutes. Form 990, Part VI, Section b, Line 15b - Compensation Process Other Officers/Key Employees. For those key employees and highest paid employees that are not reviewed by the BSHSI compensation committee, the process included a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data, and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. In the review, the other officers or key employees of the organization were compared to other hospitals' employees in the area that hold the same title. During the review and approval of the compensation, documentation of the decision was recorded in human resources.
