Volunteer tutors are matched with one student for the school year, and meet with their student one night each week. Three paid teachers are each responsible for a grade group of tutor/student pairs and provide tutor training and supplement the academic support provided to the student. Teachers are also students' advocates and communicate with school district teachers as well to help tutor work on their student's specific needs. The grade groups for the Evening Program are K-4, 5-8 and 9-12. 100% of the high school students who participated in our Evening Program this year have graduated from high school, and all have gone on to either college or other post-secondary academic pursuits.
