Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11 Process used to review the Form 990		The Form 990 is prepared by the Tax Department of DFCI and independently reviewed by Ernst & Young LLP for technical tax issues. After the Tax Department and Ernst & Young finalize the returns, The Chief Financial Officer of DFCI meets with the Tax Department to review the entire tax return in detail. If any changes need to be made, the Tax Department will make the changes in accordance with the CFO. After the CFO approves the return, certain sections are taken to Board Committees for a more detailed analysis. For example, the Board Compensation Committee reviews all information related to compensation in Part VII and Schedule J. Once the return has been through the committees who review certain sections, the tax return is presented to the Audit Committee for review and approval. After the audit committee approves the tax return, an electronic message is sent to all Board members with a secured link to the tax return. The Board has the opportunity to review the return and if any issues arise, they can bring them to the appropriate executive management individuals. The return is only filed after each of the steps in the review process is complete. Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Monitoring & Enforcement of Conflict of Interest Policy. The Office of General Counsel, the Assistant Secretary of the Board, and the Tax Department drafts a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Questionnaire each year and has all trustees, officers, and key employees fill out a questionnaire in regards to their personal situation and personal and business relationships. The Assistant Secretary compiles the list of Disclosures and gathers financial data from the Accounts Payable and Payroll Department for all organizations, employees, independent contractors, and other miscellaneous transactions which were disclosed by all individuals. Once all of this information is compiled, the Office of General Counsel and the Tax Department goes through each transaction and disclosure to determine what needs to be disclosed on the tax return. The Tax Department and the Office of General Counsel also discusses if there are any other known transactions that have not been disclosed. If there are any questions regarding such situation, the Office of General Counsel and the Assistant Secretary will discuss the questions with the individual trustees involved. In addition the process described above, the governance committee of the board of directors annually reviews the conflict of interest disclosures and they address any issues that may arise. The governance committee is also responsible to bring any major issues related to the conflict of interest policy to the executive committee and the entire Board if deemed necessary. Per DFCI and Affiliate's conflict of interest policy, in order to avoid a conflict of interest or an appearance of a conflict of interest: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A Trustee should not participate in a vote on a transaction in which the Trustee or family member has a financial interest and should disclose any potential conflict before DFI acts on the transaction. 2. A Trustee, a member of his or her family, or an entity with which one or more of them has a material interest, may not do business with DFI unless expressly authorized by DFI after full disclosure. 3. A Trustee should fully disclose his or her association (including employment, consulting, or membership on a governing board by the Trustee or a family member) with an entity that competes with or has interests conflicting with those of DFI and should refrain from participating in any vote of other the organization if the vote affects DFI. Part VI, Question 19 Governing Documents - We currently provide the governing documents upon request. The Governing Documents are also available to the Public on the Secretary of the Commonwealth's website. Conflict of Interest Policy DFI's Conflict of Interest Policy can be found within Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Inc & its Affiliates Code of Conduct, which is available on its website. Financial Statements - The organization uses the services of Digital Assurance Certification LLC (DAC) to report annual audited financial statements and other relevant organizational information as required by certain regulatory and tax laws. DAC is a website (www.dacbond.com) free to the public that publishes tax-exempt bond issuers' financial and legal documents such as the Audited Financial Statements. Fiscal Year 2001 through the latest issue date of the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements for Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Inc and Dana-Farber, Inc can be found on the DAC website.
