Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

The Institute of Nuclear Materials Management was formed in 1958 to encourage the advancement of nuclear materials management in all its aspects, to promote research in the field of nuclear materials management, establish standards consistent with existing professional norms, improve the qualifications of those engaged in nuclear materials management and safeguards through high standards of professional ethics, education, and attainments, and the recognition of those who meet such standards, and to increase and disseminate information through meetings, professional contacts, reports, papers, discussions, and publications

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a	(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)
	The Annual Meeting provides attendees with a professional forum for the exchange of the latest technical information in nuclear materials management. The meeting addresses all aspects of nuclear materials management with papers and posters organized by the INMM Technical Program Committee. 1189 attendees, mostly members comprised of academicians, consultants, government contractors/employees/licenseses, news media, non-governmental organizations, nuclear laboratories, private Industry Professionals, Public Officials, public Utilities and grad students, attended the INMM annual meeting over a four-day period. There are typically 60 concurrent educational sessions. Papers presented at the annual meeting are published online for members and meeting attendees, and will be available for subscription to nonmembers in the future.
4b	(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)
	The journal is published with the purpose of advancing and promoting efficient management of nuclear materials. And it is published four times a year and distributed to over 1200 members and nonmembers.
4c	(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)
	Workshops provide participants with updated information on specific topical areas of materials management including government programs and policy development, the status of technologies and projects, licensing of management facilities and equipment, and the special considerations related to the technical program areas. Attendees actively participate in the discussions and interface with experts as well as with program managers and policy makers. Over 100 attendees attend various educational workshops throughout the year. Papers presented at the workshop are published and available for purchase after the event.
4d	Other program services (Describe in Schedule O)
