 Our international ministries aim to partner cross-culturally with Christians living in other nations around the world. Our desire is to train Christian leaders and provide resources for gospel advancement globally. We have provided grants for work in Botswana and Ghana as we work with our strategic partner OneWay Africa. Our goal in Africa and in other countries is to see national leaders rise up, be equipped and trained and sent out to share the gospel with those who do not know about Jesus. Through active church planting and community development projects we hope to see our partners be able to holistically care for and minister to the poor and needy of the world.
